

OPPOSITE The living room bar was designed around an existing feature window.

ABOVE Texture and colour are the key linking elements, starting at the entrance and weaving throughout the home.

PREVIOUS The terrace off the living room overlooks the Woollahra Valley.

ABOVE + OPPOSITE A cosy media room, with a vibrant painting by Joanna Kitas above the sofa, leads off the living/dining area through one of the deep portals.

ABOVE The ceiling beams indicate the original size of the room. The new addition is expressed in the same dark timber cladding as the exterior.

ABOVE + OPPOSITE The juxtaposition of the Marise Maas painting in the entry, the artwork by Clifton Mack on the main wall and an Elizabeth Cummings painting, propped to the right on low joinery, is eclectic, as is the case with most of the owners' collection.

